Talking To Myself Linda Stitt

JOURNAL - cdn.ymaws.com

Linda Smith I served as a Law Clerk to Judge Jonathan C Thacher in 2005-2006, and through that clerkship, met Judge Stitt I always enjoyed talking to him, as he was, as many have noted, extremely down to earth and devoid of pretension He was a straight talker, with a great, dry sense of humor I felt I could be myself around him, which was very comfort- ing to me as a law clerk and new PERFORMING POLITICAL ACTS: PERFORMANCE ART IN ...

André Stitt, Homework (Köln: Krash Verlag, 2000) For nearly 40 years artists have been creating performances, interventions and other time-based art in Northern Ireland during a period of traumatic civil conflict However, their work remains largely confined to half-remembered anecdotes, rumours and hearsay In the following essay I will explore through recovered documentation, memory and

Stages of Reality: The Mind/Body Problem in Contemporary ...

Peter Stitt Stages of Reality: The Mind/ Body Problem in Contemporary Poetry* I Viewed from the perspective of his Selected Poems , the career of Mark Strand appears to have two distinct phases In what we may call the later poems-which begin to appear in The Story of Our Lives (1973), become dominant in The Late Hour (1978), and completely take over the "New Poems" section of the selected
